

HERE'S A SPECTACLE.

The Government at Washington
Will Be In the Hands of

THE MOST CORRUPT RING ON EARTH

The Associates and Tools of the Convicted Thief, Boss Tweed, the Mafia of American Politics to be Enthroned at the Capital of the Nation
—How Cleveland Purchased the New York Victory.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Press says: Richard Croker is to be the next President of the United States. The men who were the associates and tools of the convicted thief, William T. Tweed, are to be, in conjunction with the unrepentant barons of the south, the all powerful forces behind the Cleveland administration. Cleveland's election is Tammany's triumph. The Mafia of American politics; the most corrupt and vicious organization that ever bartered votes for spoils and power, is to be enthroned at Washington for the next four years.

No Democratic or Mugwump organ had the courage to attempt to deny before election the undeniable fact of Grover Cleveland's corrupt bargain with Tammany bosses. Since the event of Tuesday the complete indebtedness of the Democratic candidate to Tammany and its immediate allies has been openly acknowledged, both by Cleveland and his Mugwump supporters. The candidate whose disgraceful victory is infinitely more disgraceful than his defeat without the Tammany alliance would have been, publicly confessed that his victory is due to the "splendid work of Tammany Hall," Chairman Dickinson, of the national Democratic campaign committee, has written an effusive letter to Boss Croker, thanking him for his "untiring devotion" to the cause of Cleveland and reform, and expressing the warmest commendation of "loyal Tammany Hall."

The Mugwump Times, which in days not long past habitually aligned to Tammany as an organization controlled by dive-keepers, gamblers and professional criminals, shouts joyously that "the conduct of Tammany in this campaign deserves to be commended," and declares that to William F. Sheehan, whom it denounced last June as a "blackguard," a political pirate and a man of whom honorable action was "unthinkable," the Democracy and its candidate are under deep obligation. The mask of Mugwump hypocrisy has been thrown to the ground. Grover Cleveland's shabby pretensions to political saintliness have been abandoned, now that their purpose has been served. The whole nation will have an opportunity in the coming four years to realize, as the people of New York have realized, what Tammany corruption and Tammany insolence mean. The brigands and blackmailers will soon be in the saddle. The Press has confidence that the American people will hurl them from it when the opportunity comes. This nation will never tolerate Tammany government.

DEMAND FREE TRADE.

One Club That Holds the Democratic Party to Its Pledge.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The Chicago Single Tax club has adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, The national Democratic platform denounces protection as a fraud and a robbery and declares it to be unconstitutional, and with these declarations submitted the matter to the people, therefore,

"Resolved, That the tidal wave which swept the country last Tuesday was a righteous condemnation of protection.

"Resolved, That we denounce as false to the pledges of the Democratic party and inimical to its continued success every utterance on the part of its accredited leaders tending to justify perpetuation of any vestige of the protective system.

"Resolved, That we demand justice; when monopolists seek protection they should ask it by its right name, and that at the place provided for the needy, and not strive to turn the national government into a gigantic public institution.

THIS BEATS 'EM ALL

An Ohio Democrat Wins a Bride on the Election Result.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 11.—Henry Rudolph, residing at Evanston, this state, has for several years sought the hand of Miss Lawrence, of the same place, but unsuccessfully. Just after the Chicago convention Miss Lawrence bet Rudolph that Cleveland would not win, the stake being her hand. Thursday night Rudolph came to this city to get the returns. He was the most anxious man in town. When it became known that Cleveland had been elected he was wild. Yesterday morning he returned to Evanston, brought Miss Lawrence to the city and married her.

In a Hurry For Free Trade.

New York, Nov. 11.—In an editorial headed "The Need of Prompt Action" the Evening Post this afternoon says: "We hold that it is for the highest interest of the country, as well as of the Democratic party, that Mr. Cleveland should call an extra session of the new Congress as soon as possible after his inauguration and set them to work diligently on the tariff."

THAT READING-R & O. DEAL

Dealed by President—But There is Something in a Fool.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 11.—President Mayer, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, was in town this morning, but the other officials and counsel of the Baltimore & Ohio denied the Philadelphia and New York rumor that the Reading had consummated any deal whereby they could acquire control of the Baltimore & Ohio system.

Few doubt, however, that an amalgamation of the two will be consummated, the Baltimore & Ohio controlling west of Pittsburgh and the Reading east of that city. This would give the Reading its long wished for entrance into the Pittsburgh.

A Horrible Murder.

BOISE, IDAHO, Nov. 11.—Near Junction crossing, on the Clearwater river, a Hungarian named Zacharowsky was horribly murdered by a countryman known as "Peter the Hun," for some supposed indignity. Peter, while his victim slept, poured a lot of molten lead into his ear. The hot metal quickly burned its way into the unfortunate man's brain, causing almost instant death.

A TERRIBLE STORY.

An Awful Case of Cannibalism Occurs in Russia.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A most horrible story of cannibalism is reported by the Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent. A woman named Akkerman, a giantess in stature and strength, sought shelter at the house of a peasant woman named Sariya, living in the mail district of Bessarabia. The Akkerman woman was afforded a refuge by the peasant and they became quite friendly. They drank considerable and when the supply gave out, Yoreski went out to get another bottle. She was gone quite a little while. When she returned she was almost struck dumb with horror on finding that her guest in her absence had killed her baby, gnawed the soft parts of its body and sucked its blood and brains. The woman was then in the act of attempting to kill another child three years old, a girl who was attempting to escape from the hut and screaming at the top of her voice. The mother rushed in and tried to save her child from the murderous, but the latter struck the little girl with a bludgeon and killed her before the mother could reach her. The mother's brain was turned by the terrible scene she had witnessed and she became a raving maniac. She attempted to kill herself, but the neighbors who had been attracted to the scene by her wild shrieks prevented her. The Akkerman woman made a most desperate resistance when some of the peasants attempted to arrest her. She fought like a tigress and some of the peasants were severely injured. She was finally overpowered, and bound with ropes, five men accompanied her to jail.

A BLOODY FIGHT

At the Polls Between Rural Factions in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Nov. 11.—A special to the American from Johnson City, Tenn., says: News reaches here of the bloodiest election fight on record at the polls on Big Rock creek, Mitchell county, N. C., twenty-five miles south of this place, between Republican factions. George K. Pritchard, Republican nominee for sheriff, was opposed by Isaac McKinney, Independent Republican, who was defeated for the nomination by a small majority. The race was remarkably bitter and bloodshed was expected. A fight was precipitated by one of McKinney's followers knocking down his opponent. Immediately the whole crowd of fifty took sides. A desperate battle ensued. Stones, knives and pistols were used with terrible effect. Twenty men are wounded, four of whom will probably die. The community is noted for its desperate acts. The whole population is in arms, and more bloodshed is imminent.

A PLUCKY WOMAN.

She Found a Man Under the Bed and Instead of Fainting Contrived His Arrest.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 11.—Mrs. Mary Cox, like many other women, always looks under the bed before she retires. Hereafter she will believe in this feminine ceremony more than ever, for last night she caught a real live man under there and contrived his ignominious capture without uttering a single scream. Mrs. Cox retired to her room about 11 o'clock, and after removing her rings, watch and diamonds, proceeded to disrobe. Then she looked under the bed. Comfortably curled up beneath she saw a man.

Mrs. Cox did not scream, but calmly walked out of the room and going down stairs left the house, quietly locking the door behind her and then without even a wrapper ran to the drug store on the corner and telephoned for the patrol wagon. The wagon came in a hurry and the officers reached the door at the same time as Mrs. Cox. The officers ran up stairs and found the man still curled up beneath the bed. He was pulled out, too much surprised to attempt resistance. At the station he gave his name as Joseph Hart. The police recognize a well known sneak thief.

Inauguration at Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The inauguration of Jacob Gould Scurman president of Cornell university occurred today, beginning at 10:30 a. m. The exercises were held in the armory and were attended by a very large audience of university, out-of-town visitors and townspeople.

Scurman Private.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—The President's most prominent visitor this morning was Senator Sherman, of Ohio. The two distinguished gentlemen were together about half an hour engaged in strictly private conversation.

Duke Northbrooke's Death.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A coroner's jury sat at Benham today. The duke's solicitors watched the proceedings. The jury returned a verdict that death had resulted from natural causes.

I HAVE been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all others for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—R. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn. W.F.W.

THE NEW THEATRE

On Market Street Above Twelfth A-ready in Progress of Erection.

Considerable progress has already been made on the new theatre which is being erected on Market street, just above the new Peabody insurance building, by Messrs. Scofield & Sortore, who control a number of houses in Detroit, Toledo, Buffalo, Cleveland and other cities. All the work is being done under the personal supervision of Mr. Sortore, who has been in the amusement business for six years, having superintended the erection of buildings of similar character in the past. The building, which is nearly 60 feet wide and over 100 feet long, is divided into two halls, each 27 feet wide and 97 feet long. The main entrance is in the middle, with a lobby 17 feet wide and 20 feet deep, with two store rooms on each side, of the same dimensions. The entire building will be constructed of galvanized iron and wood, the front being highly ornamental and built of galvanized iron, for which special designs were furnished by the Caldwell & Peterson company, who have charge of that part of the work.

The entrance will be on the north side of the box office, leading directly into the curio hall, which will be handsomely fitted up. From this hall will be a large entrance into the theatre, where a performance will be held four times each day, two in the afternoon and two in the evening.

The theatre will have a seating capacity of about 350 people. The stage will be situated in the rear, being 20 feet deep, with a proscenium front of 15 by 18 feet, and completely furnished with all the necessary stage appointments and scenery.

The interior surroundings will be in keeping with the decorations of the curio hall. It is expected to have the place open in the early part of December, arrangements having been made to have the museum in a circuit with others in the big cities. A pleasant feature about the erection of the building is that it will close the only vacant gap on that square.

TREND OF TRADE.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of the Business Situation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade:

The presidential election has interrupted business to some extent in all parts of the country during the past week, but by no means as much as usual, and at nearly all points the volume of trade has been fairly maintained and the unprecedented activity of industries has only been interrupted by the election holiday. The money market has not been disturbed, though working somewhat closer at several important points, and foreign necessities and the scarcity of commercial bills have caused some decline in foreign exchange.

At Pittsburgh the production of iron increases, but the demand and the general tone is slightly better than before, with large orders for wrought pig. Glass and especially plate is in large demand. Trade at Cleveland is good, the demand for manufactured iron exceeding the capacity of mills and money is working closer.

The output of pig iron in November was 171,082 tons weekly, an increase of 13,055 tons during the month of October. Deliveries of rails for the year are small, probably not over 1,250,000 tons; bars are more active, owing to car building, but plates are quiet and new orders for structural work are scarce. Copper is in moderate demand, Lead weak.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the past seven days number 210. For the same week last year 291.

Killed by a Constable.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—William Ticknor and William Wheeler, members of the Canadian regiment of infantry stationed here, were acting in a disorderly manner in the street last night and were remonstrated with by Constable Campbell. Wheeler became abusive and the constable arrested him, whereupon Ticknor interfered and both set upon the constable. They wrested his baton from him and forced him to the ground, and were maltreating him when Campbell drew a revolver and shot Ticknor through the breast, inflicting a wound which caused death in a few minutes. Ticknor was an Englishman lately from London and has no relatives in America.

Twenty Lives Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The steam whaler Orea arrived from the Arctic last night. Fifth mate Ward, of the wrecked whaler Helen Mar, who was one of the five survivors of that vessel, was taken on board the Orea on October 12, six days after the wreck. He died from exposure, making the total loss of life on the Helen Mar twenty.

Sleep on Left Side.

Many persons are unable to sleep on their left side. The cause has long been a puzzle to physicians. Metropolitan papers speak with great interest of Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent Indiana specialist in nervous and heart diseases, who has discovered that this habit arises from a diseased heart. He has examined and kept on record thousands of cases. His New Heart Cure, a wonderful remedy, is sold at Logan Drug Co.'s. Thousands testify to its value as a cure for Heart Diseases. Mrs. Chas. Benoy, Loveland, Colo., says its effects on her were marvelous. Elegant Book on Heart Disease free.
